Tree Plantation Program

Tree plantation

05/10/2023

Konkan Gyanpeeth Rahul Dharkar College of Pharmacy and Research Institute, Karjat organized and successfully completed a Tree Plantation Program on 05th October 2023. Tree Plantation was coordinated by Mrs. Nilofar Khan and Mrs. Sweety Dalvi under the Department of Pharmacognosy under the guidance of Dr. Mohan Kale, Principal. Around 250 students and teaching faculties, non-teaching faculties were participated in the program.

Trees are the foremost source for producing the oxygen in environment, they help to reduce the level of CO<sub>2</sub>. As we all know that the whole world is facing the problem of global warming and to recover from such problem planting the trees is become one of the most important aspects today.

The event was begun with the welcoming Honorable Principal Dr. Mohan Kale. After the inspirational words of Principal, we all move towards the place where tree plantation took place. A very first tree plant by Dr. Mohan Kale in college premises and then by teaching and non-teaching staff planed trees. Total tree planted by all others including teachers, volunteers and guest was more than 25 on the day. It really feels great to do positive for the nature.

Report: National Energy Conservation Day Celebration

On 14th December 2023, the IIC Committee of KGRDCP orchestrated a notable celebration to commemorate National Energy Conservation Day. This event, held at Seminar Hall, served as a platform for students, faculty, and staff members to gather and reflect on the importance of energy conservation in today's world.

The event's centrepiece was a compelling presentation delivered by three first-year Bachelor of Pharmacy (B. Pharm) students: Parth Jitendra Shrikhande, Ankur Kedar Ketaki Gadgil, and Swarali Ravindra Abhade. Their presentation underscored the significance of National Energy Conservation Day 2024, emphasising its theme and objectives. The students showcased a comprehensive understanding of energy conservation principles and shared practical strategies for reducing energy consumption and promoting sustainability.

Their presentation elicited active participation from the audience, sparking meaningful discussions and exchanges of ideas. Attendees were not only educated about the importance of energy conservation but also inspired to take tangible actions in their daily lives to contribute to the cause.

(Approved by AICTE & P.C.I. (New Delhi), D.T.E. (Govt. of MS) & Affiliated to University of Mumbai & MSBTE)

The success of the event can be attributed to the meticulous planning and coordination by Ms. Akshata Geedh and Ms. Aasiya Dadel, the dedicated coordinators of the IIC Committee. Their leadership ensured smooth execution and maximum engagement throughout the celebration.

The celebration of National Energy Conservation Day 2024 served as a timely reminder of the collective responsibility we share in safeguarding our planet's resources for future generations. It highlighted the role of education and awareness in driving positive change and fostering a culture of environmental stewardship.

In summary, the National Energy Conservation Day celebration organized by the IIC Committee of KGRDCP was a resounding success, thanks to the insightful contributions of the students and the active engagement of the audience. The event not only raised awareness about energy conservation but also inspired a commitment to sustainable practices among participants.

Report on One-Day Workshop:

"A Brainstorming Full Day Workshop on GPAT, NIPER Self Study Preparation and Rapid Revision"

Date: January 9, 2024

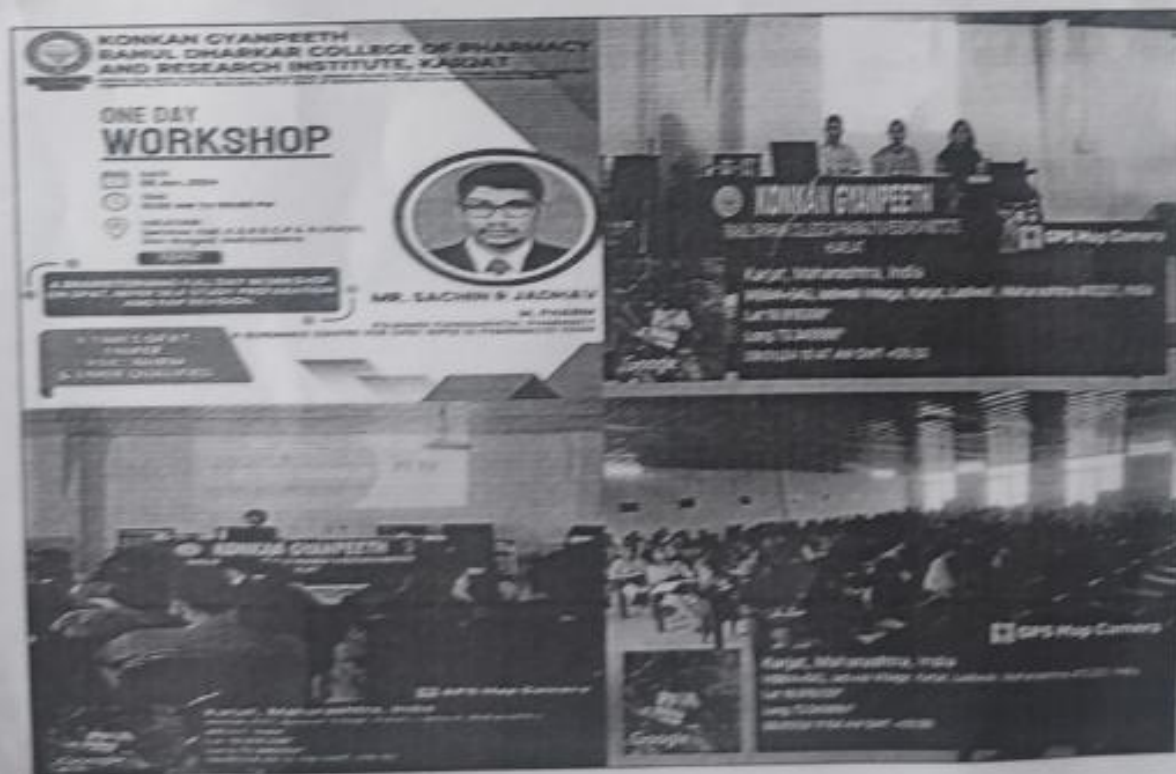

Time: 10:00 AM to 5:00 PM

Location: Seminar Hall, KGRDCP & RI, Karjat

Coordinators: Dr. Ujjwala Thube, Ms. Akshata Geedh

Speaker: Mr. Sachin Jadhav, Founder of Fundamental Pharmacy

On January 9th, 2024, KGRDCP & RI, Karjat, hosted an intensive one-day workshop titled "A Brainstorming Full Day Workshop on GPAT, NIPER Self Study Preparation and Rapid Revision." The event ran from 10:00 AM to 5:00 PM in the Seminar Hall and was coordinated by Dr. Ujjwala Thube and Ms. Akshata Geedh. The workshop featured Mr. Sachin Jadhav, the founder of Fundamental Pharmacy, as the keynote speaker. Mr. Jadhav is a distinguished figure in the field, having qualified for GPAT, NIPER, ESIC, NHRM, and DMER examinations six times.

The workshop aimed to equip participants with effective self-study techniques and rapid revision strategies crucial for excelling in competitive exams like GPAT and NIPER. The day commenced with an introduction by the coordinators, highlighting the objectives of the workshop and the significance of rigorous preparation for these competitive exams.

Mr. Jadhav began his session by sharing his personal journey and experiences in preparing for these exams, which provided a motivational boost to the attendees. His extensive knowledge and success in multiple competitive exams made him an ideal mentor for the session. Throughout the day, he covered various topics including effective time management, the importance of a structured study plan, and key areas of focus for GPAT and NIPER exams.

The workshop was divided into several interactive sessions. Mr. Jadhav introduced innovative self-study techniques that can be adopted by students to enhance their learning efficiency. He emphasized the importance of understanding core concepts rather than rote memorization. Participants were encouraged to engage actively, ask questions, and discuss their preparation strategies. This interactive approach not only clarified their doubts but also provided a platform for peer learning.

A significant portion of the workshop was dedicated to rapid revision strategies. Mr. Jadhav shared techniques on how to consolidate vast syllabi into manageable study segments for quick and effective revision. He provided tips on creating concise notes, using flashcards, and practicing with previous years' question papers. These methods are designed to help students retain information better and perform well under exam conditions.

The workshop concluded with a Q&A session where participants could seek personalized advice from Mr. Jadhav. His detailed responses and practical suggestions were highly appreciated by the attendees. Feedback from participants indicated that the workshop was immensely beneficial and provided them with a clearer roadmap for their exam preparations.

Overall, the workshop on GPAT and NIPER self-study preparation and rapid revision was a resounding success. It provided students with valuable insights, practical study strategies, and the motivation to excel in their upcoming examinations. The dedication of the coordinators and the expertise of Mr. Sachin Jadhav ensured that the participants left with a renewed sense of purpose and confidence in their ability to succeed.

Report on the Seminar "Accepting Opportunities of Higher Education"

On January 10th, 2024, KGRDCP & RI, Karjat, hosted a seminar titled "Accepting Opportunities of Higher Education," conducted in a hybrid mode that included both in-person attendance at the seminar hall and participation via video conference call. This seminar aimed to enlighten students about the various opportunities available for higher education and how to effectively pursue them.

The event was coordinated by Mrs. Nilofar Khan, Dr. Ujjwala Thube, and Ms. Akshata Geedh. The keynote speaker, Dr. N. N. Inamdar, a distinguished professor from the Government College of Pharmacy, Amravati, shared her extensive knowledge and experiences in higher education. The seminar commenced at 10:00 AM with an introduction and welcome address by the coordinators, who outlined the seminar's objectives and emphasized the importance of exploring higher education opportunities.

Dr. Inamdar's keynote address, which took place from 10:15 AM to 11:30 AM, covered a wide range of topics. She discussed the various higher education opportunities available to students, including postgraduate programs, scholarships, and international study options. Dr. Inamdar also highlighted the significance of research, internships, and networking in enhancing both educational and career prospects. She provided practical advice on how students can effectively identify and apply for these opportunities.

An interactive Q&A session followed from 11:30 AM to 12:00 PM, during which participants, both in-person and online, engaged with Dr. Inamdar, asking questions about various aspects of higher education. Dr. Inamdar responded in detail, addressing their concerns and offering further guidance. The seminar concluded with closing remarks from the coordinators between 12:30 PM and 1:00 PM, where they thanked Dr. Inamdar for her insightful presentation and expressed gratitude to the participants for their active engagement.

The seminar on "Accepting Opportunities of Higher Education" was well-received, providing valuable information and guidance to students about the numerous opportunities available in higher education. The hybrid format of the seminar allowed for broader participation, ensuring that more students could benefit from Dr. Inamdar's insights. Participants provided positive feedback, appreciating the comprehensive coverage of the topic and the interactive nature of the event. Overall, the seminar successfully highlighted the importance of pursuing higher education and equipped students with the knowledge necessary to take full advantage of the opportunities available to them.

The gas fire safety training program aimed at raising awareness about precautions during household gas cylinder usage was a pivotal initiative. Conducted with precision and professionalism, the program addressed crucial aspects of gas safety.

The primary goal was to educate participants on the safe handling of gas cylinders, emphasizing preventive measures to reduce the risk of fire incidents. The training covered topics such as proper storage, installation, and maintenance of gas cylinders. Participants were educated on identifying gas leaks and immediate response procedures.

In Gas safety training they covered following points

- 1) Proper Installation: Ensure that gas cylinders are installed by certified professionals. Correct installation minimizes the risk of leaks and ensures proper functioning of gas appliances.
- 2) Regular Maintenance: Conduct routine checks on gas appliances and connections. Any signs of wear, tear, or damage should be addressed promptly to prevent potential hazards.
- 3) Ventilation: Adequate ventilation is crucial in areas with gas appliances. Well-ventilated spaces reduce the concentration of gas, minimizing the risk of accidental ignition.
- 4) Gas Leak Detection: Educate individuals on recognizing the signs of a gas leak, such as a distinctive odor or hissing sound. Encourage the use of gas detectors for early detection.
- 5) Emergency Response: Train individuals on immediate actions to take in case of a gas leak, including shutting off the gas supply, ventilating the area, and evacuating if necessary. Familiarity with emergency contact numbers is essential.
- 6) Safe Storage: Gas cylinders should be stored in upright positions in well-ventilated, dry areas. Avoid exposing them to direct sunlight or extreme temperatures.
- 7) Weight of the Cylinder: Gas cylinders are labeled with their tare weight (empty weight) and gross weight (weight when filled). This information is essential to determine the amount of gas remaining. Regularly weigh cylinders to gauge the gas level. A sudden decrease in weight may indicate a gas leak or depletion, warranting immediate attention.
- 8) Expiry of the Cylinder: Gas cylinders have a specified lifespan, often ranging from 10 to 15 years, depending on the material and manufacturing standards. Look for the expiry date stamped on the cylinder. Cylinders beyond their expiration date should not be used, as they may pose safety risks.

OUTCOMES:

After Completion of Gas Safety Training program students and staff should be able to know:

- 1) By implementing these measures, communities can significantly reduce the risks associated with household gas usage and foster a culture of safety awareness.
- 2) Understanding the proper installation, Regular maintainance, ventilation, safe storage, weight and expiration details of gas cylinders is fundamental to safe usage.
- 3) Regular monitoring and adherence to manufacturer guidelines and industry standards contribute significantly to minimizing risks associated with gas cylinders.

A Report on Seminar on Business Education on Pharmacy Franchise (B. Pharmacy Students)

KGRDCP and RI Karjat organised a seminar on "Business Education on Pharmacy Franchises" for Diploma of Pharmacy students on January 29, 2024, at 11 a.m. The seminar started with a lamp-lighting ceremony as a tribute to Mother Saraswati. The programme was graced with the presence of eminent speaker Dr. Sachin Sonawane. Later on, the felicitation of the guest speaker was done.

Ms. Priya Khape delivered the introductions of Dr. Sachin Sonavane (Founder and Director of SS Medpure Healthcare Pvt. Ltd.), Ms. Sanjana Kamble (Manager of SS Medpure Healthcare Pvt. Ltd.), Ms. Samiksha Mahadik (Deputy Manager of SS Medpure Healthcare Pvt. Ltd.), and Mr. Sahil Kamble (Executive Officer).

The guest speaker, Dr. Sachin Sonavane, delivered his talk on Business Education in Pharmacy franchise, in which he talked about their company, project, vision, and mission. He shared his life story and the reason behind his hospital name, and he explained about his company name, Medpure. Med means Medicine, and pure means Purity, and he said that his first aim is patient care. He started his "Medpure company" in 2019. Then he started the session with their upcoming project, in which a few things they achieved are Medpure ambulance, Medpure physiotherapy, Medpure hospital, and Medpure laboratory. Other things they have to achieve or work on in the future are Medpure insurance, Medpure online pharmacy, and Medpure Yoga Center.

He discussed the pharmacy business of retail and wholesale, and they provide both retail and wholesale to students. He said that Medpure is also planning to serve their customers through online pharmacies by using mobile applications. He also said we have to do business and provide social services. This kind of mindset helps you expand your business. He said that he's only interested in Monopoly business.

Konkan Gyanpeeth Rahul Dharkar College of Pharmacy and Research Institute, Karjat Organized World environment day and tree plantation program

The Konkan Gyanpeeth Rahul Dharkar College of Pharmacy and Research Institute in Karjat celebrated World Environment Day 2024 with a series of activities aimed at promoting environmental conservation and awareness. The college invited Dr. Smita Nayak, Professor at the Gahlot Institute of Pharmacy in Navi Mumbai, to be the Chief Guest for the event on June 5, 2024. This celebration featured key activities such as tree plantation, water conservation, and a Swachhata Abhiyan to ensure the campus remained clean, green, and free of plastic.

The project inauguration functions were planned throughout June and July 2024, emphasizing the importance of nature, the environment, and mankind. Additional activities included a tree plantation drive where each faculty member planted and cared for a tree in their name. This initiative aimed to enhance air quality, support biodiversity, combat soil erosion, promote community ties, ensure efficient water use, educate the community on water conservation, create a cleaner and healthier campus, and reduce plastic waste.

In line with this, the college organized a Tree Plantation Program on June 11, 2024. Coordinated by Ms. Priya Khape, Mrs. Sweety Dalvi, and Dr. Hemant Tawale under the Department of Pharmacognosy, and guided by Principal Dr. Mohan Kale, the event saw participation from faculty, and non-teaching staff. The program aimed to address the environmental need to reduce CO<sub>2</sub> levels by planting trees, which produce oxygen. The event began with a welcome address by Dr. Mohan Kale, who planted the first tree on the college premises. Participants actively engaged, resulting in the planting of more than 25 trees on the day.

This initiative continued daily for an entire month, with trees planted, cared for, and nurtured in memory of Appasaheb Dharkar, Rahul Dharkar, and Elen Dharkar. The goal was to plant 100 trees within 20 days, with each faculty member encouraged to plant a tree in their name and take responsibility for its care and growth. The advantages of tree plantation included environmental benefits such as carbon sequestration, improved air quality, enhanced biodiversity, soil conservation, and climate regulation, as well as community and educational benefits like educational opportunities, community engagement, and contributions to health and well-being.

These efforts underscored the institution's commitment to environmental sustainability, not just through organized events but as an ongoing effort. The continuous tree planting initiative reflected a deep dedication to fostering a greener environment and community. The invitation, signed by Dr. Mohan K. Kale, Principal, expressed hope for a

A Report on Intellectual Property Rights

24th July, 2024

Intellectual
24/7/24

Institutional Innovation Council (IIC) of KGRDCP & RI, Karjat in collaboration with RYLA, Panvel, organized one day seminar on "Intellectual Property Rights" for diploma and degreestudents on 24th July, 2024.. More than 150 students attended the seminar.

The program started with a lamp lightening ceremony as a tribute to goddess Saraswati. Dr. Mohan Kale Principal of KGRDCP& RI welcomed and felicitated resource person with bouquet, memento and diary. The program was graced with the presence of eminent guest speaker Mrs. Sheetal Sawalekar who is Rotarian Club member and an Advocate

The session aimed to educate participants on the various aspects of IPR, its significance, and its implications for professionals, especially in the fields of research and innovation.

She gave an overview on Intellectual Property Rights (IPR). She explained about Types of Intellectual Property Rights: Patents, Trademarks, copyrights, trade secrets, Industrial Designs, Geographical Indications. She also explained about the legal requirements about the patents. She also elaborated on basics of IPR and its importance in modern activity.

She explained the importance of IPR which included Innovation encouragement: by providing exclusive rights, IPR incentivizes individuals and companies to invest in research and development. Economic Growth: IPR protection leads to the commercialization of new products and services, contributing to economic growth and job creation. Cultural Development: Protecting artistic works encourages cultural development by ensuring creators receive recognition and financial benefit from their work. Consumer Protection: Trademarks and geographical indications help consumers identify the source and quality of products, ensuring they make informed choices.

She also briefly explained about challenges in IPR like enforcement issues, Piracy and Counterfeiting. She explained that Intellectual Property Rights play a vital role in promoting innovation, economic growth, and cultural development. While also offer significant benefits, addressing the challenges related to enforcement, piracy, and global disparities is crucial for maximizing their potential. As the global economy becomes increasingly knowledge-based, the importance of robust and effective IPR systems will continue to grow.

On the 24th July, 2024 the Institutional Innovation Council (IIC) of KGRDCP & RI, in collaboration with the Rotary Club of Panvel, organized a seminar titled "Problem Solving and Ideation." The event aimed to enhance students' problem-solving skills and foster creative thinking in generating innovative ideas for personal and professional growth.

The seminar commenced with a traditional lamp-lighting ceremony as a mark of respect and to seek blessings for the success of the event. Dr. Mohan Kale, Principal of KGRDCP & RI, extended a warm welcome to the resource person and the attendees. Mr. A.M. Gavarikar, a distinguished expert in problem-solving and ideation, was honored with a shawl and shrifal as a token of appreciation for his participation.

- Overcoming Challenges: The session covered strategies for addressing common obstacles faced during problem-solving and how to navigate through creative blocks.
- Practical Applications: Mr. Gavarikar shared real-world examples and case studies to illustrate how these techniques can be applied in various contexts, from business challenges to social issues.

The seminar was highly interactive, with Mr. Gavarikar encouraging participants to engage in problem-solving exercises and share their ideas. This hands-on approach allowed attendees to directly apply the concepts discussed and gain practical experience.

The program was hosted by Ms. Pranita Bhangare and Ms. Asfiya Khan, Assistant Professors at KGRDCP & RI. Following the presentation, Mr. Gavarikar addressed queries from the students, providing insightful answers and further clarifying the topics covered. The session concluded with a bouquet and memento presentation to Mr. Gavarikar by the Principal, as a gesture of gratitude.

The event concluded with a vote of thanks delivered by Ms. Asfiya Khan, acknowledging the contributions of the resource person, the collaboration with the Rotary Club of Panvel, and the active participation of the students.

Mechanisms for IAs

29th July, 2024

On 29th July, 2024, MIC -Driven Activities for the Quarter IV of IIC 6.0 (2023-2024) for IIC Institutions, MIC -Driven online Session on: Guiding Framework for Creating and engaging Trained Faculty and student IIC Members Innovation Ambassadors (IA) in IIC Institutions and Rewarding Mechanisms for IAs was Scheduled at 11:00 am. All the IIC members, Teaching faculty and students attended the session organized by Institutional Innovation Council (IIC) of KGRDCP & RL, Karjat at Computer room of KGRDCP & RL. More than 45 participants attended the session.

The session is a part of MIC Driven activities aimed to establish a structured framework for training and engaging faculty and students as Innovation Ambassadors (IA) in IIC institutions. Session initiated with the welcome of Esteemed Speaker Mr. Dipan Kumar Shahu, Assistant Innovation Director MoE's Innovation Cell. Further Mr. Dipan Kumar Shahu delivered the detailed presentation on the core objective of IIC. The session also discussed rewarding mechanisms to incentivize active participation and contribution. Intensive training sessions were conducted for both faculty and student IIC members, focusing on innovation management, leadership, and entrepreneurship. New engagement strategies were introduced to ensure continuous involvement of IAs in promoting and supporting innovation activities within their institutions. A comprehensive reward system was outlined, aiming to recognize and motivate IAs who demonstrate exceptional commitment and contribute significantly to their institution's innovation ecosystem. Faculty IAs were encouraged to mentor student IAs, fostering a collaborative environment. Networking opportunities were also highlighted to connect IAs with industry experts and other institutions.

Few challenges were also discussed where ensuring adequate resources for ongoing training and engagement activities was identified as a challenge. Scaling the reward mechanisms across all IIC institutions posed logistical challenges that need to be addressed in future sessions.

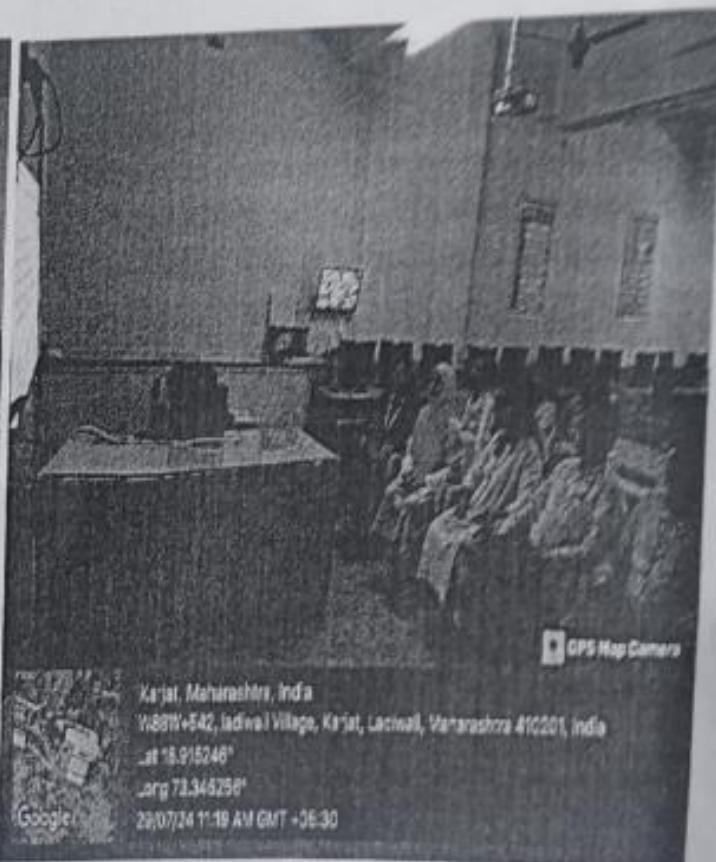

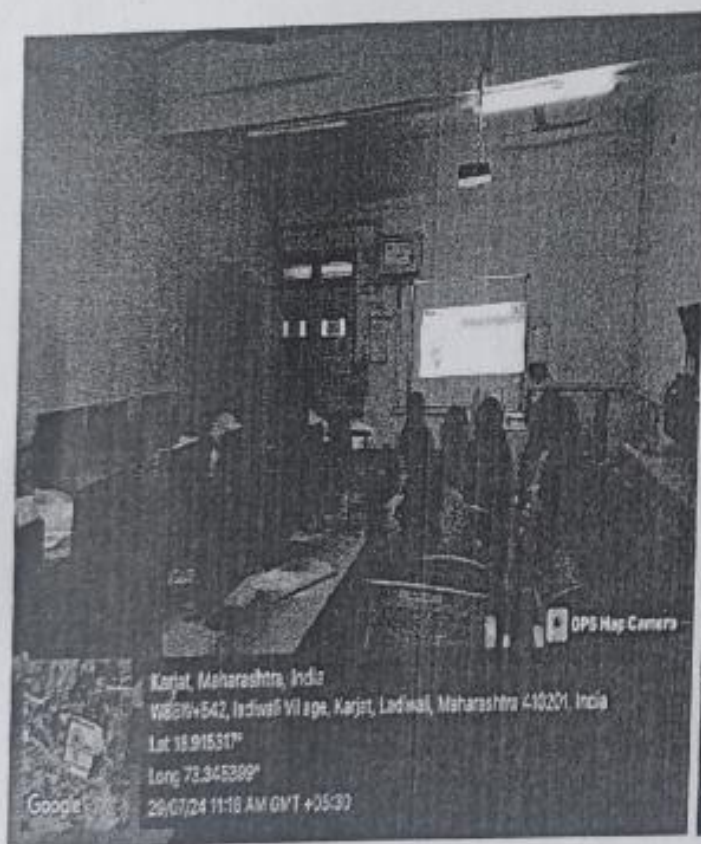

Future directions discussed included were, that the program will continue to evolve with more advanced training modules and workshops to keep IAs up-to-date with the latest trends in innovation. Efforts will be made to implement the framework across all IIC institutions, ensuring consistent engagement and rewarding mechanisms. Regular monitoring and evaluation will be conducted to assess the effectiveness of the initiatives and make necessary adjustments.

The MIC-driven session on July 29, 2024, successfully laid the groundwork for creating and engaging trained Innovation Ambassadors in IIC institutions. By introducing a structured framework and rewarding mechanisms, the session significantly contributed to strengthening the innovation ecosystem across institutions, ensuring that both faculty and students are well-equipped and motivated to drive innovation forward. Mr. Dipan Shahu provided valuable insights into effective developing and engaging innovation ambassadors and reward mechanism by support of vital role in enhancing innovation and entrepreneurship activities.

Outcomes:

- Increased IA Involvement: A notable increase in active participation by trained IAs was observed, leading to more robust innovation practices within IIC institutions.
- Recognition and Motivation: The reward mechanisms effectively incentivized IAs, resulting in higher engagement and innovation outputs.
- Sustainable Innovation Culture: The session contributed to establishing a sustainable culture of innovation by equipping IAs with the necessary skills and resources.
