Report on Tree Plantation Drive on
"World Environment Day"

On the occasion of World Environment Day 2025, a small tree plantation drive was organised at Konkan Gyanpeeth Rahul Dharkar College of Pharmacy & Research Institute (KGRDCP & RI), Karjat on 5th June 2025. The activity aimed to raise awareness about environmental conservation and encourage sustainable practices within the campus community. The global theme for this year was "Land Restoration, Desertification and Drought Resilience."

The drive was inaugurated by Dr. Mohan Kale, Principal, who highlighted the importance of individual efforts in contributing to global environmental goals. He emphasised that even small initiatives, such as campus tree plantations, can lead to long-term positive impacts.

A few selected areas within the college premises were identified for planting native and medicinal plant species. 12 Staff members and 30 students participated in the activity with great enthusiasm.

The event was coordinated by the Institution's Innovation Council (IIC) and the Rotaract Club of Karjat Pharmacist, along with support from the NSS Unit. It not only contributed to the greenery of the campus but also served as a hands-on learning opportunity for students about plant care and environmental responsibility.

The plantation drive concluded with a short environmental pledge taken by all participants, reaffirming their commitment to protecting nature and promoting sustainability in their daily lives.

Outcomes of the Event:

- Strengthened environmental awareness among students and staff.
- Added greenery to selected areas of the campus.
- Encouraged student participation in sustainable initiatives.
- Promoted teamwork and shared responsibility for environmental care.

Though small in scale, the drive marked a meaningful step toward building a greener and more environmentally conscious campus.

Webinar on "PATRIOTISM"

Mode: Hybrid (Seminar Halls of KGRDCP & RI and VESCOP, and Zoom Platform)

On 16th May 2025, Konkan Gyanpeeth Rahul Dharkar College of Pharmacy & Research Institute (KGRDCP & RI), Karjat, in collaboration with Vivekanand Education Society's College of Pharmacy (VESCOP), Chembur, hosted a powerful motivational event in hybrid mode, featuring two decorated Indian Army veterans—Colonel Prakash P. Vyas and Colonel Subhash Pol. The event took place simultaneously in the seminar halls of both institutions and was streamed live on Zoom, allowing for extensive student and faculty participation.

The first session featured Colonel Prakash P. Vyas, a spiritually inclined, seasoned soldier with 21 years of service in the Indian Army and vast experience in aviation leadership. He began his session by asking students to pen down their five-year plans, promoting goal-setting and self-awareness. He then elaborated on career opportunities in the Indian Armed Forces, highlighting the academic and physical eligibility criteria, and shared profound life experiences that emphasized discipline, purpose, and integrity. His message resonated with the audience, offering a blend of military precision, spiritual grounding, and motivational guidance.

The second session was delivered by Colonel Subhash Pol, Director of Vishwabharati Defence Academy and a veteran of the Infantry Madras Regiment. His address focused on "Patriotism", and like Colonel Vyas, he encouraged students to share their goals and aspirations. He provided a detailed overview of entry points into the defense services through NDA, CDS, and AFCAT, and engaged students with personal stories that emphasized courage, sacrifice, and national pride. The session concluded with students reflecting on their key takeaways, reinforcing a spirit of active participation.
